

Computer Engineering Department

Program Specific Objectives (PSO's)
PSO 1	To teach the student in an effective way about the computer world and enabling their working capabilities through various industry related subjects
PSO 2	To make students knowledgeable about the latest trends and topics which are changing the face of the world
PSO 3	To improve the employability of students through practical oriented teaching learning process
PSO 4	To give students ample amount of academics practices, so that they can become employee creator