

Electrical Engineering Department

Program Specific Outcomes (PSO)

The student will be able to learn

PSO-1	To develop acquaintance and conceptual knowledge in students supported with practical exposure in the area of non conventional energy sources and utilization.
PSO-2	To empower the students with engineering concepts along with aptitude skills for developing competency to succeed in competitive examinations.
PSO-3	To provide hands on experiences and exposure to the aspirant students in the field of embedded systems.